

Rise & Shine Morning Routine

Meaningful Few Things To Include

- I would like you to think in terms of MnM's – movement, mindfulness and motivation. It could be as simple as dedicating a bit of time to just one of these for as little as 5-minutes. Amy Cuddy's research shows that stretching our arms out and expanding our physical space influences our feelings and our thoughts, making us more positive (a little added incentive for the movement/stretching routine we provide 😊).
- Before launching into your day of work, rate the tasks you would like to complete on a scale of importance, where it is unclear, ask yourself a question based around a key determinant for you e.g. how much does this task contribute to my promotion prospects or how much could this contribute to a revenue generating activity...
