What we eat has a significant impact on our energy and mood.

Please use this tracker or alternatively we recommend a great app called FatSecret. This is for those of you who prefer to think in ink and track with pen and paper.

For the next three days, please fill it consistently to get an idea of what foods are most or least energising to you.

Write down the foods you eat and rate your energy levels 30 minutes after eating.

Happy and healthy tracking!
